

METHODISTS ARE STIRRED

The Changes Made by Conference Giving the Greatest Dissatisfaction.

BROAD STREET VERY SORE

It Wanted Rev. W. J. Young and No One Else—Some Other Great Surprises.

Rumors are flying about, like bats on the wing and as thick, striking here and there and provoking a perfect whirlwind in the air immediate roundabouts. Methodist Virginia is aroused, and there is no mistake about it. It began in Charlottesville on Tuesday, when, as indicated in a previous report, the surprise was great when the ministerial appointments were read, that everybody present was on the tip-toe of excitement and expectation, knowing not what would come next. But the Charlottesville scene is hardly a clear picture to the genuine stir-up that follows in its wake and that is attached to it as effect the cause.

Much Comment. There is not so much an objection to the ministers sent to the various churches as there is a feeling of great disappointment by many at not securing picked names. Several prominent laymen have been heard to express themselves in pretty plain terms, and the entire list of the bishop's assignments was characterized by several as a "mistake." Frequently other and stronger words were uttered.

Much comment has been aroused by the fact that Dr. Young goes to Centenary, despite the fact that there were three delegations after him in Charlottesville, and that the congregation to which he goes was not represented at the field at all so far as anybody knows. Broad Street, Richmond, wanted him and Broad Street is sore disappointed not because it got Mr. Spooner from Trinity, who is very generally regarded as one of the powers in the conference, but because it did not get Dr. Young. It asked for the Centenary minister and for the Centenary sent a committee to Charlottesville, waited on the bishop while he was here, and wrote strong letters. It was almost sure of getting him. "But it amounted to absolutely nothing," said one of the stewards of the church yesterday, with a dissatisfied tone in his voice.

After Dr. Young went to Monumental, Portsmouth, and Main Street, Danville. The last named church was almost frantic in its efforts to get him. It had at least six people in Charlottesville working on the bishop. It brought every pressure to bear, exhausted every argument, raised the pastor's salary above Centenary, and everything else in the book. Centenary is, of course, delighted. There is but one complicating circumstance here. The big Richmond church wanted to change pastors merely that it might get into the "four-year swing." If it changed, it wanted Dr. Young. If not Dr. Young, it wanted Dr. Lear. Dr. Lear had taken care of it. He was made a presiding elder, and it was generally thought was well satisfied. Later reports declare that this is not the case. The minister himself, said vaguely last night that he hadn't yet looked over the new field before him.

Other Cases. Other cases of disappointment may be cited in Richmond. Park Place had one of its most prominent members at the conference, and the congregation was settled in the belief that it had secured the Rev. J. N. Latham, one of the shining lights. But it slipped up here. Mr. Latham went to Portsmouth, and Mr. Betty was shifted from Clay Street to Park Place, causing great surprise to all. The removal of Mr. Latham from Union Station to Trinity caused another sensation, and nobody was more surprised than Dr. Latham himself. As stated yesterday he forgot to say "Amen," as usual, merely grunted.

Clay Street seems to be well pleased, and Laurel Street is having a quiet conference over the return of Dr. Johnson. Asbury also gets the man it wanted in Mr. Day. The removal of Rev. J. S. Hunter from Ashland to Fairmount caused surprise, but is very acceptable. Dr. Wilson, as presiding elder of West Richmond, will receive the glad hand of welcome, and Dr. Tudor will be received in like manner in Richmond District. Neither of these appointments caused the slightest surprise; everybody expected and wanted them.

No Formal Action. The feeling of dissatisfaction is said to extend over the entire conference. So far as is known, however, there will be no formal action, but there was much shaking of heads at the prayer meetings last night. Rumors of possible post-conference changes cannot be verified, and there will hardly be any development in this direction. Things will settle down again after a while.

The bishop has gone home. Dr. Wilson is still in Petersburg, but will be here soon. He said yesterday that he was still hunting a house. He has no house in his district. Two efforts to reach Dr. Tudor failed of their object. As is usual, the changes go into effect at once. The old ministers are moving out and the new ones are coming in. Some of the new pastors will begin their new work on Sunday. Dr. Young will arrive in time to preach his first sermon at Centenary a week from next Sunday. Epworth Church, Norfolk, is stirred to its core over the decision. It sent its resolutions to the conference, but they were not received. Perhaps they didn't get there in time.

There is one peculiar circumstance in connection with this matter. While Epworth is in declaration of indignation, the proposer of the conference resolutions makes the statement that Dr. Smart read them before they were presented and said he had no earthly objection to them; that they did not touch him or Epworth at all.

The Helming Circle.

"The Helming Circle" of the King's Daughters and Sons will have their annual oyster supper in the lecture room of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church to-night from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. All of the season's delicacies and a fine musical programme for the small sum of 25 cents. The entire proceeds will be used to relieve the needs of the poor, which are very numerous at this time.

Just For Fun Club. The members of the Just For Fun Social Club were delightfully entertained Tuesday night at the residence of Miss Sophie Hooper, No. 400 South Cherry Street.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

Of Munyon's Paw-Paw, the Greatest Known Tonic.

Chronic Dyspeptics and the Great Army of

Nervous and Sleepless Sufferers Say That

Paw-Paw is Truly a Heaven-Sent Boon to Them.

The widespread interest which has been developed in Munyon's Paw-Paw in the space of a few weeks has the greatest significance for the sick and suffering in this city. In every ward and street those who have been cured by Paw-Paw can be found delightedly telling their friends all about it, and each expresses surprise that cures of the most stubborn cases of dyspepsia, nervousness and sleeplessness can be brought about so quickly.

This morning we present more new testimonials. Our regret is that it isn't expedient to give you all these testimonials as they come in. If we did, however, there would be no space in this paper, large as it is, for anything else.

What a Distinguished Chemist Says.

"Ross L. Wallace, A. M. and A. C., is one of the most distinguished analytical and consulting chemists in the field. His name is near the front rank of the distinguished on chemistry. This is what he says of Munyon's Paw-Paw: 'I have analyzed the Munyon's Paw-Paw and can say that it is a highly concentrated vegetable compound of extraordinary merit as a digestant and tonic for both the stomach and nervous centers. It contains nothing whatever that could be harmful to the most delicate organizations.'"

(Signed) ROSS L. WALLACE, A. M. and A. C., Philadelphia, Pa.

Druggists say they have never handled a medicine that gave such universal satisfaction. Paw-Paw gives new life and strength to the stomach so that it digests everything that goes into it. Its effect upon the nervous system is marvelous, it seems to relieve them of all strain and irritation. For insomnia it is proving a great blessing, as scores of people declare that Paw-Paw soothes and quiets the nerves so that one can enjoy a good night's rest and get up in the morning feeling strong and refreshed.

Professor Munyon especially asks every weak and debilitated person to try his Paw-Paw remedy. He says make old folks feel young and weak folks feel strong. That will take away all need and desire for alcoholic stimulants. Alcohol drinks life, but let you fall. Paw-Paw lifts and holds you, it gives exhilaration without intoxication.

On sale at all druggists. Large bottle $1. Paw-Paw Laxative Pills 50c a bottle.

Watson will receive the glad hand of welcome, and Dr. Tudor will be received in like manner in Richmond District. Neither of these appointments caused the slightest surprise; everybody expected and wanted them.

SCHEDULE IN MANCHESTER

Passenger and Power Co. Summoned to Show Cause Why They Should Not be Fined.

CITIZENS ARE SUMMONED

Elks to Have Handsome New Home—Clear Water Scheme—Notes.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

The Passenger and Power Company has been summoned to appear by the Mayor's Court to-day to show reason why they should not pay a fine for not maintaining a ten-minute schedule on the Mayo's Bridge line.

This line runs from Fourteenth and Main Streets, Richmond, to Seventh and Hull Streets, Manchester, and complaint has been made that the line runs any old schedule.

The city ordinance requires a ten-minute schedule, and it is claimed that such a schedule has not been maintained.

CITIZENS SUMMONED. An ordinance of the city requires that all persons using water and toilet shall have connection with the city sewer. The condition of affairs is such that it is difficult to make such connection. The ordinance requires it, however, and in order to enforce that law, the chief of police has summoned the citizens, to the number of forty, to show cause why they should not be fined for failing to connect with the sewer.

MANCHESTER ELKS. Within a month or a little more, the Manchester Lodge will occupy their own home. At the last regular meeting it was decided to take possession of the Middle-dor house at Eleventh and Bankbridge Streets. This old residence will be remodelled, and a fine home will be the result.

The Manchester Lodge is composed of the cream of citizenship, and with such a home as that proposed by the lodge is bound to increase in membership and become a leading social organization in the city. An interesting meeting was held last night.

CLEAR WATER. After having seen the experiments with electricity with the view of clearing the water, the Water Committee of the City Council were very much impressed, and a member of that committee said last night that he favored such a scheme for clear water for Manchester. A report will be made at the next meeting of the City Council.

NEW HOUSE. The new house for the superintendent of the city, which is about to be completed, the Council Committee had hard fight on its hand to get this new house, but it was shown to be necessary, and the appropriation was made.

When the home is ready for occupancy, which will be in a short while, Superintendent Allen will invite the Cemetery Committee to move into him, and will give them an entertainment.

CITIZENS KICKING. People along the electric line are kicking about the dust that is raised when street cars pass by, and the police department has been instructed to notify the Passenger and Power Company that they must run their sprinklers over the line.

ORGAN FUND.

The entertainment to be given at Ceresley's Hall to-night and to-morrow night by the young ladies of West End Church promises to be a splendid affair. Refreshments will be served. The proceeds go to the organ fund.

AID SOCIETY.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give a supper at the Masonic Temple to-morrow night for the benefit of Oak Grove Church. A musical programme will be given, which will embrace the best known musicians in the city.

STEWARDS CHOSEN.

West End Church has selected the following stewards: R. L. Patram, chairman; W. B. Taylor, assistant chairman; C. A. Raines, secretary and treasurer.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

The cold wave which set in early last evening has the effect of driving people in from the street at night, and of causing those who desired to stay out to congregate in the hotel lobbies, giving them a livelier appearance than usual.

After the theatres closed the streets were soon deserted. Guests at hotels were calling for blankets, and in some cases for more steam.

A well known ex-member, who has served in both houses, is at the Lexington. Hon. A. F. Withrow, of Bath, Mr. Withrow is contractor for the new Richmond Hotel, but has so many contracts elsewhere that he seldom gets to this city.

Among the arrivals at Murphy's last night was Mr. B. F. Gravelly, of Leatherwood, Henry county, a name familiar to tobacco users, he being the manufacturer of the best known Gravelly brand, which has acquired a wide reputation and sale. For years the Gravellys, of Leatherwood, have been identified with the manufacture of tobacco, and have done much to make famous the Henry county leaf, though much that is so called is grown elsewhere.

Among the legislators reaching the city yesterday were Hon. George C. Bland, of King and Queen, who is at Murphy's, and Hon. M. K. Lowry, of Stafford, who is at the Lexington.

Hon. S. W. Holt, of Newport News, the new Senator-elect from that city, arrived in Richmond yesterday and is at Murphy's. He is one of the best known of the younger men on the Peninsula.

State Senator D. Gardner Tyler, of Charles City county, reached the city yesterday for the legislative session. He is domiciled at the Powhatan, which has become very popular with legislators, owing to its location and desirability as a home.

Among the arrivals at the Powhatan yesterday were: H. C. Wheatley and wife, Culpeper; L. Z. Condon and wife, Mrs. C. J. G. Kelly, Baltimore; L. E. Williams, Alice Williams, King William county; J. A. Oliver, Chase City; D. Gardner Tyler, Charles City; Walter Floyd, New York; W. W. Shackford, Paterson, N. J.; Thomas G. Bunker, Brooklyn; W. H. Durrett, Hinton, W. Va.

Among the well known Virginians at Murphy's yesterday were the following: J. M. Keeling, Norfolk; William McK. Woodhouse, Berkley; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. C. Williamsburg; George C. Bland, Virginia; C. H. Boward, Norfolk; Richard

GOSSIP OF GRIDIRON

Princeton Clearly the Champion of all the Elevens.

GAMES FOR NEXT SATURDAY

Harvard and Yale, Virginia and Indians and Blacksburg vs. Naval Cadets Abroad.

The defeat of Yale's unbeaten foot-ball eleven yesterday by Princeton was an upset for the experts, all of whom predicted a victory for the Blue. It was not a surprise to disinterested critics who have followed the performances of the two teams closely all season, for Princeton had the unique record of never having been scored against until yesterday, while Yale had been scored on twice this season. As was expected, Dewitt, Princeton's great guard and peerless place-kicker, figured conspicuously in the result. It was he who made Princeton's only touchdown, and his trusty toe that sent the ball between the Yale posts from the forty-five yard line and at a difficult angle. It was a victory for Princeton on the merits of play. Fumbling was primarily responsible for both touchdowns, so luck is about a stand-off. It was a great game.

West Point's defeat of Chicago, one of the strongest, if not the very strongest of the western teams, shows the superiority of the eastern over the western elevens. West Point had been beaten by Harvard, 5 to 0, and by Yale, 17 to 6. It is one of the strongest of eastern teams, however, and will almost surely humble the naval cadets on the 28th, when they meet.

Pennsylvania's decisive defeat by the Carlisle Indians, is the crowning blow to the Red and Blue. Beaten by Columbia, Harvard and now by the Indians, the once great member of the big four is humbled indeed, and has but one hope now and that small—defeating Cornell on the 26th.

Harvard's defeat by Dartmouth was not wholly unexpected by those who follow the work of the elevens. The Dartmouth eleven has a fine record. Dartmouth had been beaten only by Princeton and then, 17 to 0. It had defeated Amherst, which defeated Harvard, and made a fine record in all its games. Its success leaves Harvard no hope against Yale next Saturday. Indeed, the Crimson will be wholly outclassed by the Blue.

Cornell's defeat by Columbia is not surprising. Beaten by Yale, Columbia had defeated Pennsylvania decisively and shown itself uniformly strong. Cornell, on the other hand, is weaker than usual.

The crushing and decisive defeat of Pennsylvania by the Carlisle Indians, following the victory of the Indians over Georgetown, augurs gloomily for the University of Virginia in their game with the Redskins at Norfolk next Saturday. Though greatly outwitted, the Indians will surely defeat the heavier Virginians, if there is anything sure in a thing so uncertain as foot-ball.

There are many great games for next Saturday, the most interesting being the Harvard-Yale game and the Virginia-Carlisle and the V. P. I.-Annapolis game, one in the North, and two in the South. Next Saturday, one of the finest games in this city during the year will be between Randolph-Macon and Richmond College. Richmond appears to have a shade the better of it on the season's record, but it is anybody's game, and another upset for the talent may occur.

Here are the records of Yale and Princeton for the season:

Princeton, 34; Swarthmore, 0.
Princeton, 5; Georgetown, 0.
Princeton, 68; Gettysburg, 0.
Princeton, 20; Brown, 0.
Princeton, 11; Carlisle, 0.
Princeton, 12; Lehigh, 0.
Princeton, 47; Dartmouth, 0.
Princeton, 44; Cornell, 0.
Princeton, 11; Lafayette, 0.
Princeton, 11; Yale, 6.
Yale, 35; Trinity, 0.
Yale, 10; Tufts, 0.
Yale, 46; Vermont, 0.
Yale, 37; Wesleyan, 0.
Yale, 23; Pennsylvania State, 0.
Yale, 10; Holy Cross, 10.
Yale, 25; Columbia, 0.
Yale, 17; West Point, 5.
Yale, 30; Syracuse, 0.
Yale, 6; Princeton 11.

Yale has scored but 2,542 points in ten games, with a total score against her of 20. Princeton has scored in ten games 242 points, with but six by its opponents, defeating Dartmouth, the victor over Harvard, Carlisle, the conqueror of Pennsylvania, and Yale, the winner over Columbia and West Point, not to mention the other teams which were overwhelmed by the Tigers. Chicago, the strongest of the Western teams, was beaten by West Point, while the cadets were beaten by both Yale and Harvard. No team has had a clearer title to the championship.

FIGHTING GOES ON

IN ISLAND OF JOLO

(By Associated Press.)

MANILA, Nov. 18.—An unofficial report says the captain of a United States army transport has landed reinforcements in Jolo, and that fighting commenced as soon as the troops were landed. No further particulars have been received, as the cable is interrupted.

A cable to the Associated Press from Manila, November 18th, said that the Moros of Jolo had broken out in rebellion, and that Major-General Wood had left for the scene of the disturbance. On October 20th a party of Moros attacked a battery of artillery and fired was kept up all day. Two Americans were wounded.

STERILIZED BARBER SHOP.

A famous shop in the Carrollton Hotel, Baltimore, sterilizes everything it uses in the shop. The sterilizing is done by heat. The towels, the razors, the strops, the soap, the combs and brushes are all sterilized before being used on a customer. Where there is no sterilization, have the barber use Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the dandruff germ, and it is an antiseptic for the scalp, and for the face after shaving. All leading barbers everywhere appreciate the potent facts about Herpicide and they use it. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Owens & Minor Drug Co., special agents.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Just before the close to-day the cotton market broke sharply under heavy selling from practically sources which were attracted by rumors that the big bull leaders were unloading. The market, while irregular, had shown a thorough degree of stability early, with prices at one time 10 to 13 points higher for cold weather news, covering and but a loss from the best of about 25¢28 points, and net 13¢20 points lower. The sales were estimated at 80,000 bales.

INCREASE PENSIONS OF MEXICAN WAR VETERANS

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—To-day's session of the Senate began with the presentation of a petition by Mr. Galinger, from "The Dames of 1846," for the increase to $30 per month of all pensions granted on account of the Mexican war.

On motion of Mr. Spooner, the Senate ordered printed additional copies of the treaty of 1846 between the United States and New Granada. At 12:20 the Senate adjourned.
